6. The VEB Schiffselektrik firm in Rostock had received its 1954 reparations orders as early as October 1953. In mid-November 1953, source was informed by the Office for Reparations that the use of the term "reparations orders" was ruled out. The pertinent orders were therefore given index numbers KM-35/..... Source believed that this procedure was designed to conceal reparations orders which would continue in spite of all official declarations to the contrary.
